Howse Williams is an independent Hong Kong law firm which combines the in-depth experience of its lawyers with a creative, forward-thinking approach.

About Us

Our key practice areas are corporate/commercial and corporate finance; commercial and maritime dispute resolution; clinical negligence and healthcare; insurance, personal injury and professional indemnity insurance; employment; family and matrimonial; property and building management; banking; fraud; financial services/corporate regulatory and compliance.

As an independent law firm we are able to minimise legal and commercial conflicts of interest and act for clients in every industry sector. The partners have spent the majority of their careers in Hong Kong and have a detailed understanding of international business and business in Asia.

The HW partners and their teams have an excellent reputation for delivering high quality legal advice with a practical and commercial approach to solving legal issues in line with clients' commercial objectives.

Our Shipping Practice

HW shipping practice specialises in maritime dispute resolution; mergers and acquisitions; competition and regulation and infrastructure.

Our shipping team handles a wide range of disputes both in Hong Kong and throughout Asia. The team (which includes solicitors with seagoing experience) has considerable experience in all types of wet and dry shipping litigation. We handle shipbuilding, sale and purchase, collision, salvage, wreck removal and pollution cases, as well as charterparty, bill of lading and other contract of affreightment disputes. We advise ship-owners, P&I Clubs, Hull and Machinery insurers, salvors, charterers and freight forwarders. The team has particular expertise in handling problems arising from the shipment of steel, coal, iron ore, nickel ore and fluorspar.

Our clients include charterers, shipowners and their insurers (P&I Clubs), cargo owners, freight forwarders, recovery agents, logistic companies, godowns, terminals, port authorities, commodity traders and their insurers and other organisations in the marine transport and insurance industries.

Our practice includes:

- P&I and Defence Club work.
- Policy terms and disputes (e.g. war risk, breach of warranty, insurable interest, material non-disclosure etc.).
- Charterparty and bill of lading disputes.
- Collision, salvage and wreck removal.
- Commodity and sale of goods disputes.
- Marine insurance disputes (cargo and hull policies).
- Arbitration in London, Hong Kong, Singapore, Korea and the PRC.
- MOA disputes.
- Personal injury, employee's compensation and crew claims.
- Sale and purchase of vessels, including commercial vessels such as bulk carriers and tug boats, as well as yachts and oil rigs.
- Shipbuilding contracts for standard and specialist vessels, including offshore structures and complex engineering projects.
- Competition/regulatory work
- Mergers & acquisitions, IPOs, debt and equity capital markets, privatisations, international joint ventures, restructuring and financial services.
- Development, investment and financing of port projects working with a diverse range of organisations including governments, port authorities, developers and lenders.
- Regulatory issues on Customs & Excise, Labour Department (safety) and environmental matters including defending the relevant summons/charges.
- Container terminals defence work.
- Yacht policy disputes.

Eviana is one of our partners specialising in commercial litigation and marine disputes. She has been admitted to practice in Hong Kong since 2008.

With her strong Chinese language skills (Eviana is fluent in both written Chinese and oral Mandarin) and broad exposure to the Chinese market, Eviana focuses on cross border practice and often acts for Mainland, foreign and local corporations and private clients, ranging from state-owned enterprise, senior management, liquidators, start-up companies, Chinese insurers to high net worth individuals. She focuses on the firm's China practice and mainly advises on liquidation, re-structuring, listed company internal investigation, shareholders disputes, trade conflicts, recovery of high value debts, arbitration, injunction and other procedural matters.

Eviana started off as a litigator handling company and commercial disputes and private clients matters. Her practice then expanded to include international trade and marine cases. Prior to joining Howse Williams Bowers, Eviana was promoted as senior associate of an international law firm regularly acting for prominent insurers and local and foreign corporations in a variety of commercial, trade disputes and regulatory matters.

Eviana offers practical solutions and strategic planning to accommodate clients' business and personal needs. As an experienced litigator, she has both contentious and non-contentious practices which cover a wide spectrum over cross border and international trade disputes, company liquidation and individual bankruptcy, corporate re-structuring and scheme of arrangement, company matters, shareholders disputes, breach of directors' duties, corporate internal and forensic investigation, marine cases, insurance, regulatory and enforcement prosecutions.

Eviana speaks fluent Mandarin, Cantonese and English.
