Regulatory, Funds and Virtual Assets Practices

January 2026

Howse Williams is a leading, full service, Hong Kong law firm. We combine the in-depth experience of our lawyers with a forward thinking approach.

About Us

Our key practice areas are corporate/commercial and corporate finance; commercial and maritime dispute resolution; clinical negligence and healthcare; insurance, personal injury and professional indemnity insurance; employment; family and matrimonial; trusts and wealth preservation; wills, probate and estate administration; property and building management; banking; fraud; distressed debt; investment funds; virtual assets; financial services/corporate regulatory and compliance.

As an independent law firm we are able to minimise legal and commercial conflicts of interest and act for clients in every industry sector. The partners have spent the majority of their careers in Hong Kong and have a detailed understanding of international business and business in Asia.

Our Regulatory Practice

Our ranked regulatory team advises on both contentious and non-contentious matters, and often in both capacities for the same clients; therefore making us unique in our ability to work with clients on all of their regulatory and compliance needs.

Our clients include banks, brokers, listed companies, asset managers, financial advisors, financial investors, insurance companies and established businesses. We also advise senior management such as directors, responsible and executive officers, chief executives and licensed individuals.

A distinguishing feature of our core regulatory team is that it is headed by tri-lingual Partners with significant in-house experience, in-depth advisory experience as well as substantial financial services litigation experience. We are also able to call on support from other lawyers throughout the firm when needed. In particular, the regulatory team regularly works with the firm's banking, capital markets and employment practices.

Regulatory Investigations and Prosecutions

Our team has extensive experience representing clients (including company directors and officers) in investigations and prosecutions by regulatory bodies and law enforcement agencies in Hong Kong, such as the Securities and Futures Commission, the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, the Privacy Commissioner, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Independent Commission Against Corruption, the Customs and Excise Department, the Commercial Crimes Bureau, as well as the ancillary / consequential civil proceedings such as injunctions or claims for damages.

We also assist clients in internal investigations, working closely with in-house legal & compliance and risk management departments. Where necessary, we appoint forensic accountants, industry experts and specialist investigators. We draft reports to regulators, advise on remedial actions, negotiate settlements and handle issues with stakeholders holistically.

Here are some examples of our experience:

Data Protection and Cybercrime	Market Misconduct	Investigations by HKMA, SFC, HKEx, ICAC, CCB, IA	Financial crime: bribery or corruption, fraud	Digital assets, STOs & Cryptoexchanges
Bond issuer default, rights of investors	Search warrants and dawn raids	Breach of insurance regulations	Anti-Money Laundering investigations	Exercise of powers under sections 52 and 59, Banking Ordinance
Investigations involving overseas laws: US Patriot Act, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, UK Bribery Act, PRC State Secrets Law	Disclosure by listed companies of false and misleading information	Breaches of Hong Kong's Listing Rules	Mis-valuation of fund assets	Breach of rules, codes and guidelines
Shareholder disputes involving listed companies	Corporate governance	Unlicensed Activities	Mis-selling of financial products, including suitability	Liability of sponsors and directors in IPOs
	Inaccurate financial statements	Breach of disclosure of interest laws	Failure/delay to disclose inside information	Liability of directors in listed companies
	Self-reports and remedial action			Conflicts of Interest

Advisory Services for Financial Institutions and Listed Companies

We regularly conduct regulatory gap analyses and operational and compliance reviews so that our clients can successfully navigate through the numerous laws and regulations that apply to their businesses.

We work with clients on licensing and various regulatory applications, business structuring and business conduct issues. We help clients design internal controls and we draft documents such as service terms and conditions, client and third party agreements, compliance manuals, dawn raid procedures and so on.

We advise listed companies, and their directors, on their obligations under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and under Hong Kong's securities laws.

We assist clients to establish offices in Hong Kong and also to exit from Hong Kong, handling various issues such as the application for or relinquishment of regulatory licences, dealing with counterparties and auditors and handling employees.

Here are some regulatory issues we have worked on:

Licensing applications	Business structuring advice & entry into / exit from Hong Kong	Digital assets, crypto exchanges and crypto fund managers	Investor protection issues: suitability, conflicts of interest, professional investors, risk disclosures, origination & sale of investment products
Cross-border activities and related licensing issues	Internal controls, policies and corporate governance	AML compliance, including KYC, client onboarding and suspicious transaction reports	Data protection and outsourcing
Competition law	E-payment systems, clearing & settlement, alternative payment systems	Strategic matters, such as major regulatory changes including liaison with regulatory bodies	Directors and senior management duties
Documentation – client and counterparty agreements (including distributor & agency arrangements), compliance manuals, trade documents, etc.	Regulatory Inspections	Listed companies: "internal" issues: directors' responsibilities, shareholders' rights, price-sensitive information, independence of directors, connected transactions	Listed companies: "market" issues, corporate governance, risk management and announcement / disclosure issues

Lester's practice predominantly focuses on resolving commercial disputes and financial regulatory matters. He also has substantial experience in contentious insolvency matters, drawing upon his involvement in some high-profile insolvencies and restructuring in recent years.

Lester has handled an array of disputes in litigation and arbitration, such as intellectual property disputes, investment disputes, shareholders' disputes, fraud claims and debt enforcement. Lester is well-versed in court and arbitration procedure and has been substantially involved in a range of applications and hearings.

Lester's financial regulatory practice is uniquely broad and versatile. Apart from routinely representing listed companies, financial intermediaries and their management in investigations commenced by regulatory bodies such as the HKMA, the SFC and the HKEx on a range of market misconduct issues, he also advises clients on corporate governance and guides them through complex and novel regulatory issues arising from strategic investments in regulated and emerging sectors and launch of new products. In recent years, Lester has also counselled clients on hot topics such as cryptocurrencies, blockchain, etc.

Lester's clients range from individuals, listed companies, financial intermediaries and institutions and their directors and senior management. Lester is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and holds a specialist qualification in insolvency awarded by the HKICPA.

Lester co-authored two practitioners' textbooks on payments law and data privacy law.

Outside work, Lester is active in community service. He serves as a director of Hans Andersen Club and President of the Lions Club of Victoria Hong Kong.

Lester is fluent in English, Mandarin and Cantonese.

Lester's experience includes:

Commercial Disputes

- Advising a cryptocurrency company in a HKIAC arbitration arising from infringement of trademarks and breaches of a share sale purchase agreement; the quantum exceeds USD 25 million.
- Defending a well-known PRC real estate developer and its affiliate in a HKIAC arbitration against claims made by a US-based investment firm. The dispute arises from the right to exercise an exit option in an investment and the quantum in dispute is USD 160 million.

- Representing a PRC-based commodities conglomerate in a HKIAC arbitration against a US-based conglomerate in connection with a dispute over infringement of shareholders' rights and the opponent's failure to proceed with a merger.
- Defending a financial services firm in High Court proceedings against claims for knowing assistance and breach of duties in connection with a fraud perpetrated by a company's sole registered owner against the beneficial owner; the case involves complex issues of illegality and the duomatic defence
- Defending a director of a private equity fund in High Court proceedings against contractual and misrepresentation claims brought by investors in relation to the poor performance of and alleged wrongful suspension of share redemption by the fund
- Advising a bank on financial mis-selling claims raised by its customers

Insolvency and Debt Enforcement

- Pursuing and defending winding-up proceedings and advising on related cross-border restructuring issues including schemes of arrangement for creditors, financial institutions and distressed companies, arising from some high-profile insolvencies in the Chinese real estate sector.
- Successfully defending the debtor company in the landmark case Re Leading Holdings Group Limited in striking out a winding-up petition presented by an investor of a global note. This is the first occasion a Hong Kong court has had to decide the standing of such investor in presenting a petition as a contingent creditor.

Financial Regulatory and Compliance

- Acting for numerous Hong Kong listed companies and cryptocurrency exchanges and their directors in investigations and disciplinary proceedings commenced by the SFC and the HKEx and court proceedings, involving allegations of insider dealing, price rigging, financial misstatements, disclosure of false and misleading information, internal control deficiencies, collective investment schemes and breach of directors' undertakings.
- Counselling the investigation committee of various Hong Kong listed companies in investigations and embezzlement of funds and suspicious transactions and related SFC enquiries.
- Regularly counselling the virtual banking and stored value facility arms of a leading global fintech conglomerate in relation to licensing, corporate governance and compliance issues and regulatory enquiries arising from their daily operations, corporate transactions, creative business models, change in control and shareholding structures, strategic collaboration with third parties and new products, including their successful application for a virtual banking license.
- Advising financial institutions and private equity funds on regulatory issues arising from blockchain, investments in crypto companies, etc.
