

What our 2025 interns had to say about HW:

- 🚩 "I particularly enjoyed the collaborative environment and the opportunity to work on real-world projects. The mentorship provided by my supervisors was invaluable, and I appreciated the chance to attend meetings where I could learn from experienced professionals."
- 🚩 "I found the team culture to be very inclusive, which made it easy to share ideas and ask questions."
- 🚩 "It is a privilege to gain hands-on experience on such substantive work, which not only broadened my horizon, but also honed crucial skills as a future trainee solicitor."
- 🚩 "I have been entrusted with tasks spanning diverse legal matters, including involvement in client work."
- 🚩 "I only wish it were longer!"
- 🚩 "I appreciated experiencing the breadth and variety of cases that the medicolegal team deals with as well as the depth of detail each case can involve"
- 🚩 "[I enjoyed] talking to other people, the work was really interesting to read about, getting lunch with co-workers/feeling part of a team."
- 🚩 "Being trusted with substantive tasks gave me a sense of responsibility and purpose. I particularly enjoyed the moment when my work was appreciated."
- 🚩 "The work environment at Howse Williams is very friendly, warm and supportive. It didn't take me long to adapt to the new setting."
- 🚩 "Everyone is highly focused and dedicated to their work, which creates a productive and efficient atmosphere."
- 🚩 "I believe this openness/approachability fosters learning and growth, which is immensely important for interns and trainees"
- 🚩 "I found this intern programme very rewarding and would recommend all students to apply"
- 🚩 "[My supervising partner] consistently provided me with opportunities to work on client matters, encouraging me to draft initial responses based on my understanding of the case. This hands on approach made the feedback I received highly relevant and directly beneficial to my professional growth."

- ▼ "Beyond the variety and complexity of the work, I especially appreciated the firm's strong commitment to learning."
- ▼ "[The] genuine focus on growth made the internship an invaluable experience and highlighted how much the firm invests in the professional development of its team members."
- ▼ "One of the most valuable and rewarding experiences I have ever had"
- ▼ "The experience has significantly contributed to my professional growth and affirmed my passion to become a solicitor in the future".
- ▼ "What I enjoyed most was the people .....their down-to-earth attitude created a welcoming and supportive environment, which made the learning experience all the more enjoyable."
- ▼ "I've gained a strong foundation in corporate legal practice that will guide my future career"
- ▼ "It was very interesting, engaging and enlightening"
- ▼ "it was challenging for me to connect the theoretical aspect of law that I have studied in school with the practicality that working at a law firm needs, however, with the patient guidance of the banking team I was able to overcome this challenge and improve as a law student overall"
- ▼ "The free drinks and coffee gave me a small boost."
- ▼ "It was an eye-opening experience"
- ▼ "Supportive team, friendly interns, engaging and mentally stimulating work"
- ▼ "Not only was I entrusted with a significant and meaningful amount of responsibility, the entire team was also very willing to teach and offer constructive feedback"
- ▼ "Apart from being supportive and nurturing in the work context, it was clear to me very early on that the team treasured each other's company on a more personal level too"
- ▼ "[My supervising partner] took time to walk me through the tasks and provided valuable detailed feedback and comments. Under her guidance, I am confident to say that I have made significant improvements as a law student."
- ▼ "My internship has revealed the HW atmosphere to be friendly, welcoming, professional and intellectual."
